 INDIAN AIR FORCE "VETERAN"

Officers Career Academy works under Maji Sainik Foundation which was founded by Prof. Rangnath Ghanwat Sir, an Air Force veteran in 1998. From 26th July 2015 Officers Career Academy has been under the command of Prof. Amit Kumar Dubey an Air-Force Veteran, which is dedicated to the training of India's Future defenders with its headquarters located in Keshnand .

Officer career academy (popularly known as OCA) has become synonyms of success with discipline .Over the course of journey OCA has successfully placed 906 cadets in various ranks within the Armed Forces. OCA is honoured to be entrusted with the pre selection training of all services officers and diverse commandos across India , including the esteemed Garud commando of Indian Air Force, Marcos of Indian Navy, Para and SF commandos of Indian Army, Cobra commando of Paramilitary and NSG commandos.

On 16th November 1993, Prof. Amit was selected In Indian Air Force and gloriously served motherland India . During service tenure, he was awarded many commendations & citations for his outstanding performance and dedication towards service, actively fought Kargil War of 1999, at that time-veteran Amit was posted to strategically important forward base area of Jammu region where he has given his marvellous contribution towards motherland during the Kargil War. In his service life he served in Jammu & Kashmir, Andaman and Nicobar island, Lucknow (Uttar Pradesh), Pune (Maharashtra), Jaisalmer (Rajasthan). After 20 years of his colourful service, he got retirement from Indian Air Force on 30 Nov 2013. Prof. is very intelligent in academics so along with service duty he pursued MA, MBA (HR), B.Tech, LLB, PGDISS & PD, DLL & LW. and Qualified NET in Management studies.

Prof. Amit has published more than 9 research papers along with Dr. OP Halder on various topics related to Human resources management. He is very fond of teaching so after his retirement he has left two options of UPSC and SSC and took command of OCA.
